Review

"Julia and Bronson had great chemistry and I practically swooned at the lengths he goes to protect her from the king. Lovely, lovely story." - Sue Lyndon, Author of A Firm Husband

"Loved the characters, loved the plot. It's just a great romance to settle down reading with a glass of wine. Recommended to fans of D/s tales, Historical romances, spanking stories and strongly-written heroes. If you enjoy erotica romances but have never read one containing spanking scenes, this would be a good read to introduce you to such content. For those expecting full-on/ hardcore scenes occurring all the time, they're not here." -Vix, Blog Reviewer at ttoria.blogspot.com

Just what historical erotica should be

By Meda Reader

This is just the sweetest little book. It's great if you're in the mood for something romantic that hearkens back to those beloved "bodice-rippers". You know, the ones that were politically incorrect enough to feature a guy who spanked his feisty lady until she wised up and realized he was the one for her? Well, so goes the story of Lady Julia and Bronson, Duke of Pembridge. Without throwing in too many spoilers, let me just say that the plot of this story is as intriguing as the romantic elements and the spankings. Basically you have a leading lady "hidden in plain sight" from the man she's supposed to marry. It makes for a very good story. I'd love to see more from this author.

Romantic, Sexy and Well Written!

By Taylor Shores

I must say that I really enjoyed this story. The characters were fantastic, the plot and writing were great, and the sex was steamy with plenty of spankings. What more could you ask for?

Bronson was an extremely sexy, commanding, dominate, and romantic character. I absolutely loved him. Julia was a strong heroine, something I love seeing in the stories. The romance and chemistry added to the story and plot in ways that mindless sex wouldn't have by itself.

Basically a romantic and steamy must-read!
