Wow! Must Read!

By Valerie Jackson

First, I must say that Blue Saffire has become one of my favorite authors. I laughed, cried and rejoined while reading this book. Wyatt Black is the man. He is so comical at times, and I love his inner thoughts. His love for his family ran deep, but his love for Nellie was unconditional! Love the way he loved her and brought her out of her cocoon and made her the vixion that she was. Boy, was the sex hot, hot, hot, loved it. It broke my heart to see her mother having to suffer and succumb to the fight against cancer, it touched my heart because it hit him to me personally. I was glad to see that Nathan Briggs and the gang was brought into the story. I like how all of her novels are inter gained. I must say I will continue to read any and everything from Blue Saffire in the future.

such proper speaking characters

By ProudMamma

I just struggled though this book...when I'm reading , the characters have to sound as real as can be, but the way they talk just gets tedious. It's ok to use contractions , especially when the leading male is as alpha as described. Him saying things like, "I am " instead of good 'ol "I'm" or "if she is " as opposed to "if she's" just slows down the reading for me. It throws me off and I can't "hear" the character "speak". Maybe it's just brain processing the first person narration.

What A Story!!

By A. G.

This was such a good read! I can't wait until the next installment of this series comes out! I was hooked from the very first page of this story to the very end. I loved Wyatt and Nellie their chemistry together was Hot from the very beginning. I loved his family, I loved Nellie's mom and step dad. I laughed at the funny moments was on the edge of my seat during the drama filled moments and lastly had tears in my eyes at the sad and happy moments. This was my first time reading this author's work and I must say I can't wait to read more of it. A definite must read!
