They are simple phrases. They sound Christian—like something you might find in the Bible. We've all heard these words. Maybe we've said them. They capture some element of truth, yet they miss the point in important ways.

Join Adam Hamilton in searching for the whole truth by comparing common Christian clichés to the message and ministry of Jesus. The clichés include:

- Everything happens for a reason.
- God helps those who help themselves.
- God won't give you more than you can handle.
- God said it, I believe it, that settles it.
- Love the sinner, hate the sin.

Half Truths is also part of a small-group experience complete that includes a DVD, Leader Guide, and a youth study.

Makes You Think

By greatuncledad

Great Book, really makes you think about things we often say to people without considering what we are really saying to them about ourselves and what we believe about God.

"Truths"

By Love to sing

Interesting analysis of "truths" taught us all our lives, delivered in a thoroughly readable language. A cautionary to Christians to be most aware of what we say.

Easy Read/Great Message

By Christopher L. Ramsey

This was a great book to help the reader look deeper at common phrases used by Christians. I've heard many of these phrases spoken by family, friends and religious leaders. Though all had good intentions, to the receiving ears the words may be confusing or even harsh. This book challenges the reader to think about the deeper meaning of the phrases and suggests more appropriate words or actions.
