*FORMERLY TITLED LOVE, LOYALTY, AND DISHONOR REVISED All G wants to do is start college in the fall and hopefully get drafted into the NBA. Being the younger brother of the biggest heroin dealer in the city, doesn't attract G to the street life, until his college dreams are put on the line. G begins to ride alongside his brother Rugga, and chase street fame, but spending more time with his brother opens his eyes up to some of Rugga's ways that make G look at him differently. Tension quickly builds between the two men, and they find themselves beefing over various things..one of those things being Toya.

Toya leaves a dysfunctional relationship with Buns and hops into another with Rugga. She quickly regrets her choice and is not too comfortable with the fact that she feels she chose the wrong brother. Buns is released from prison hell bent on getting Toya back, but her heart has already been claimed. Find out who comes out on top.

Natisha Raynor is a beast with the pen.....

I loved loved loved this story, that dang Rugga something else and he doesn't deserve Toya. I loved the relationship Rugga && G had as brothers and hopefully they can get that back. The boys mama was the true definition of RACHET, she didn't care what they did as long as she could get money. Poor little G seemed have been dealt a terrible hand. His intentions seemed to be good, all he wanted to do was play ball. Once his leg was broken it kind of broke his spirit as well. I know Rugga was in a relationship with Toya but I wanna see her with G. The two of them really love each other and G will treat her so much better. I was shocked when Kree ran back to Rugga like a little snitch, but he still just a kid his self. Somebody needs to handle Buns asap, why would he wanna shoot up they mama house he begging for trouble. This story had just enough drama to keep me engaged in what was going on. I think Natisha doesn't a great job of balancing out her characters.Overall I enjoyed reading this book and it was very well written. I would recommend everyone to read it, after all we all been In Love with A G before.

When G meets beautiful Toya, he is in awe

By Stefni The Beast Reader

Geranimo known as "G" was a boss. His brother was really the man known on the streets as "Rugga". Big brother was arrogant and believed in money over B's and when he took to G's crush 9Terrin) from school, G know looked at him through a whole different window, When G meets beautiful Toya, he is in awe, but slow moving gives Rugga the chance once again. This time G is not taking this lying down. Entangled in a crazy love affair and the return of an ex, she has more than enough on her plate especially with crazy Rugga and Buns! Once Toya sees Rugga for who he really is and regretting a lot of her past, how will she escape the bad and get with the G? When Buns enlist her help with a situation, how will she handle this especially if Rugga finds out? part 2, hurry!

Loved it

By Ebie520

I enjoyed this story.. It started out a lil slow but quickly picked up.. I really wish that G would've went harder 2 get Toya in the beginning.. Rugga was the typical man that did dirty and couldn't accept it wen it was dished back out (even tho it was done after she broke up w/ him).. Same goes for Buns.. I can't wait 4 pt 2.. I hope Toya picks the baby up & doesn't let him kno where she lives..
