If You Love Cats - You'll Love This Book!

By Ruth J. Hartman

Shardai is a big-hearted cat who loves his human more than life itself. He's been to cat heaven, but even having experienced its wonders, he can't let go of his love for her. He goes through quite a lot to be with her. Coming back as other cats, even as a weak newborn. I loved that in the story, other animals could often sense when cats had come back in another life. An old soul. They could see it in the eyes.

During his journey to find her, he meets several other cats. He forms bonds with some. But no bond so strong as to keep him from his human.

If you are a cat person, this book is for you!

I cannot begin to tell you how much I loved this book

By Gina Marie

I cannot begin to tell you how much I loved this book. I nearly cried throughout, especially toward the end. Shardai is filled with love, suspense, devotion and true compassion.

I do not want to give too much of the character development or plot away but Shardai is basically in search for his human mom. He lived with her for many years in his former cat life before he became ill and passed on to cat Heaven or Catarau. Their bond was so strong and endearing for him, he chose to be reincarnated in a different cat body on Earth in order to be with his human mom again. Once a cat dies on Earth and reaches Catarau, they can make the decision to stay in this majestic and peaceful place or return to Earth... if the elders give the okay.

Once Shardai returns to Earth, he realizes he is no longer a husky beautiful white cat but a small black kitten. And although this is a huge obstacle for him, his determination surpasses many of the dangers ahead.

His new cat mother is close to him and his siblings as he tries to do what is best for them to survive in the wilderness as well as continue the journey to find his mother. Shardai's love for his kitty family is strong and filled with a protective instinct. Even though he is determined to find his human mom, Shardai still makes sure he does whatever he can to protect and help find homes for his new family.

The author's knowledge about the behavior and instinct of cats is apparent throughout this entire story. Shardai is filled with suspense and such a descriptive language, you are sure to be sucked in from beginning to end. And by the end, you will be in tears.

I highly recommend this book for readers from ages 10 to 100. I look forward to reading Cox's other books in this incredible series.
