Not just for class

By Vivica

My son needed this for a class that he is actually taking with the author as the instructor at Mesa University. He says this book is very well written and he will keep this one as a reference guide even after the class is over because it is so helpful.

I received a nice quality book

By Brad Collett

I received a nice quality book, though there were several pages that were torn near the bottom and the corners of the hard cover were all slightly bent in.
