TEUFEL (RIESA BOOK 1) BY LD TOWERS PDF

Against the politically charged background of Nazi Germany's police state, Standartenführer Doctor Hagen Kohl is trying to carve out a profession for himself in the SS. A middle class intellectual with a doctorate in Literature, Hagen is an investigator who hunts criminals within the party apparatus itself. Hagen justifies everything by his personal code and patriotism, unable to see the flaws of the regime he serves. When he is ordered to investigate members of the army, he discovers patriotism is entirely a matter of perspective. His eyes are further opened by exposure to Galiena von Steinberg; an aristocrat whose own experiences bring him into the entanglements and intrigues at the highest levels of Third Reich society.

Highly recommended.

By A. Ramsey

Fantastic book and definitely a fantastic author. There are not many books out there that tell this side of history, which is why this is such a rare treat. No propaganda, no fluffy bunnies, just good old storytelling. Highly recommended.

Amazing Author

By Marcia

This book is written by an amazingly talented author. I look forward to reading the next novel in the series.

A Great Story Between the Two Great Wars

By DE

If you are at all interested in the time period between the two world wars - then read this book. Many of the characters are taken from the pages of history - where they are often portrayed as demonic and one-dimensional. In this story, these same characters - like Goring and Himmler - are given motivation and depth that while not justifying their beliefs - at least allows for a plausible motivation for their often horrendous actions.
